National Breast Cancer Awareness Month

Show your support and wear pink each Friday in October

Lost and Found

During our Second Annual Family Picnic a single key and remote lock for a Chevy was found. If you have misplaced your keys and believe they may be yours please speak to Shannon or Colleen by calling The Village at Morse Farm at (217)-854-8142.

Our Second Annual Family Picnic

The Family Picnic was a huge success with over a hundred guests in attendance. Fried Chicken, Potato Salad and drinks were provided, and many other delicious dishes and desserts were brought in by family and friends. The Family Picnic will be held annually the third Saturday in September so please mark your calendars for 2010.

Recycle Bin

A recycle bin is now located up at the front desk for any newspapers, magazines or junk mail that you wish to be recycled. This came as a suggestion from our September Resident Meeting.

Flu Season

The Flu Season is fast approaching and we would like to give you some helpful tips for prevention.
